

Katherine Vyse to Step Down from Mainstreet Health Investments Board of Directors

TORONTO, June 7, 2017 /CNW/ - Mainstreet Health Investments Inc. (TSX: HLP-U) ("Mainstreet" or the "Company") announced today that Katherine Vyse will resign from the Company's Board of Directors, effective immediately, for personal reasons.

"It has been a privilege to participate in Mainstreet's rapid growth and success as a member of such a smart and dynamic Board of Directors and to work alongside the highly experienced and talented management team," stated Katherine Vyse.

"Katherine has been instrumental in the launch and growth of the Company," said Zeke Turner, chairman of the Board. "We all benefited from her tireless commitment and experience, and wish her well in this transition. With our strong Board and management team, we are confident we will continue to execute on our mission to impact lives through transformative healthcare investments."

"We are grateful for all Katherine has done for the company," said Scott White, chief executive officer. "She has been a valuable member of the Mainstreet family. Her knowledge, talent and passion have been instrumental to our success."

The Board of Directors will begin a search process to find a replacement Board member.
